

Lady – The Special Osprey Sample Student Responses

Sample Response 1

However, a huge birds of prey called an osprey. who is standing in her giant nest and is looking out to the blue sky. Futher more due to the land any day after a 3.000 - mile migration back from west Africa. More over Lady will probably assume that he has died and move on to another male. However Lady is a star attraction and very important. She has a unique defect in the iris of her right eye. Mey be the branches around her are two discreet cameras. one for day and one for night pointing at the nest. The last pair was killed by egg and bird hunters such as the victorian Collector.

(117 Words)

Sample Response 2

Lady, a huge bird of prey called an osprey. This bird as puzzled the expert by living to the age of 26 and amazing thing is she has produced 48 bay birds. Ospreys mate for life, if one died they would move on to another male. Like this the Lady has outlived two mates. Moreover, she has been coming back to her nest for 19 years. Lady don't have any mark or ring for the identification. The only way is when bird-watchers focused their cameras on her eyes, that her identity could be confirmed. She has a unique defect in the iris of her right eye which looks like a lightning bolt.

(112 Words)

Sample Response 3

Lady, an osprey has lived to the age of 26. This is astonishing, as ospreys usually live for only 8 years. She has produced 48 baby birds, and has already outlived two lifetime mates. Last year, Lady was ill and thought of to be dead soon, but she survived and came this year. Recognizing Lady is easy, as she as a unique defect in the iris of her right eye, which looks like a lightning bolt. Since her return, enthusiasts have been watching her; no other osprey has been watched by so many people. Worldwide she has encouraged a new interest in the survival of the osprey, which has been under threat for many years.

(114 Words)